DOORS
 have always held great
SIGNIFICANCE
 in our lives.

Besides protecting our houses,
 it the first thing that greets and welcomes our guests.

About Us

Polo door skin brings to you a new range of door skins that not only beautify the doors but also lend new dimensions to the entrance of your house. We are widely recognized as one of the most promising brand in the industry. Our stack of innovative designs and stylish finishes have achieved tremendous goodwill and word-of-mouth in the market. We are a name of repute in manufacturing, exporting and retailing a wide range of door skins. These include traditional digital door skins. High grade raw material is used for the manufacturing of the door skins to ensure durability. Apart from certified longevity, our door skins are appreciated for features like dimensional accuracy, durable finishes and wear resistance. Our technically advanced designs, customized applications, and wide portfolio of skin doors make them the perfect embellishments for your doors.
